- (4) A person whose permit to keep a dog has been cancelled or who has previously had a dog removed from his or her care or has a previous criminal conviction or civil judgment against him or her in respect of a dog in his or her care, may not keep a dog, unless the City determines otherwise.

5. Permits to keep more dogs and cats than the prescribed number

- (1) Any person who wants to keep a greater number of dogs or cats on any premises than the number permitted for that type of premises in terms of section 4 and 6, must apply to the City for a permit.

- (2) An application in terms of subsection (1) must be in writing on a prescribed form and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (3) The City may require the applicant to provide any information which it considers relevant to enable it to make an informed decision.
- (4) The City may refuse to consider an application in terms of subsection (1) in respect of which the provisions of subsection (2) have not been complied with or information contemplated in subsection (3), has not been furnished.
- (5) The City may only consider an application in terms of subsection (1) after receipt of a written report from an authorised official –
 - (a) as to whether the dog or cat for which the permit is required is likely to cause a public health nuisance or the keeping of such dog or cat may result in a contravention of section 5 or 6;
 - (b) setting out the results of an inspection of the premises on which the dog or cat concerned is being kept or is to be kept; and
 - (c) as to whether the applicant has previously had a dog or cat removed from his or her care or has a previous criminal conviction or civil judgement against him or her in respect of an animal in his or her care.
- (6) The City may refuse an application in terms of subsection (1) or approve it subject to any conditions aimed at reducing the risk of any public health nuisance created by the dogs or cats on the premises concerned occurring, continuing or to reduce such risk to a level acceptable to the City.
- (7) In respect of any application approved in terms of subsection (6), an authorised official must issue a permit on a prescribed form specifying every condition imposed by the City.
- (8) A permit is not transferable from one person to another or from the premises in respect of which it has been issued, to other premises.

6. Restriction on number of cats

- (1) The City may determine the number of cats that may be kept on any premises.
- (2) In the absence of a determination made in terms of the provisions of subsection (1) and subject to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), no person may keep more than –
 - (a) four cats, or allow more than four cats, over the age of six months to be kept in any premises;
 - (b) six cats, or allow more than six cats, to be kept on an agricultural property.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to any person who is the holder of a permit issued in terms of section 5.
- (4) A person who has previously had a cat removed from his or her care or has a previous criminal conviction or civil judgement against him or her in respect of a cat in his or her care, may not keep a cat, unless the City determines otherwise.

- (5) No person shall keep any cat which does not have on its collar or micro-chip, a name, telephone number and physical address or reference to a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals or registered animal welfare organisation.

7. Animals shall not be a source of danger

- (1) No person may urge, incite or provoke any animal to attack, worry or frighten any person or animal or through negligence fail to prevent any animal from attacking, worrying or frightening any other person or animal.
- (2) Any person who keeps an animal on any premises shall keep such animal in such a manner as not to be a source of danger to City employees entering upon such premises for the purpose of carrying out their duties.
- (3) A notice to the effect that a dangerous animal is being kept on such premises shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at each access point to the premises.

8. Animal fighting

- (2) Any animal seized and impounded in terms of this By-law, must be kept at the place designated by the City for at least 10 days to enable the owner or person in charge of the animal to claim it.
- (3) In the case of large animals, at least 30 days to enable the owner or person in charge of the animal to claim it.
- (4) If the owner or person in charge has not claimed the animal within the periods set out in subsection (2) and 3 above, the City may sell or donate it and retain and apply the proceeds of the sale, if any, for its own benefit, or it may otherwise dispose of the animal.
- (5) The person who claims the animal seized must pay to the City the reasonable costs of the City for the seizure and removal of the animal, plus the reasonable costs of the organisation for accommodating the animal, before the animal may be released to the person.
- (6) If an animal seized and impounded in terms of this By-law and , where applicable, is so diseased or injured or in such a poor physical condition that it would be cruel or that it would bring unnecessary suffering to the animal to keep it alive and that it ought therefore to be destroyed without unreasonable delay, the City may summon a veterinarian to examine the animal and if, after such examination, the veterinarian certifies that the animal is so diseased or injured or in such a poor physical condition that it would be cruel or that it would bring unnecessary suffering to the animal to keep it alive and that it ought therefore to be destroyed, the City may instruct a veterinarian to immediately destroy the animal or cause it to be destroyed in such a manner so as to inflict as little suffering as possible.
- (7) The City may recover the reasonable veterinary costs and other costs in carrying out the provisions of subsection (5) from the owner or the person in charge of keeping the animal in question.
- (8) A dog or cat which has been seized or removed in terms of this by-law or the provisions of any other law which is found by the authorised official –
 - (a) to be suffering from any incurable, infectious or contagious disease, or be badly injured: or
 - (b) to be ferocious, vicious or dangerous, may be destroyed forthwith - the destruction of any dog or cat shall be by such painless method as may be approved by a registered veterinarian and shall take place under the supervision of an authorised official.

CHAPTER 2: GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE KEEPING OF ANIMALS

21. Welfare facilities for the care and accommodation of animals

- (1) All entities purporting to be animal welfare organisations must be registered not-for-profit entities whose main mission and objectives is the reduction of animal suffering and improvements in animal welfare.
- (2) All animal welfare organisations other than a statutory organisation which also functions as rescue and shelter organisations must apply for a permit from the City, which permit must be issued prior to the commencement of operations.
- (3) Such permit may only be granted if the applicant–

- (a) has appropriate dedicated facilities in terms of relevant City by-laws; and
- (b) will employ at least one professional, qualified and registered welfare expert to be continuously involved in the management of the organisation or enterprise.

22. Establishment of a pound and appointment of pound master

- (1) The City may establish a pound and any places for safe-keeping of animals within the area of jurisdiction of the City.
- (2) The City may enter into a service delivery agreement with a statutory organisation, an animal welfare organisation or a person to operate such a pound.
- (3) The City may close any pound under its control.
- (4) The City may, in terms of the relevant policies, appoint a competent and suitably skilled person as pound master.
- (5) The City may, in terms of a service delivery agreement, appoint a competent and suitably skilled service provider as pound master.

23. Animal keepers

- (1) All persons are capable of keeping animals, other than –
 - (a) where previously banned from doing so;
 - (b) where unable to provide basic species specific care;
 - (c) minors under 14, who may not keep animals without consent of guardians; and
 - (d) where the appropriate permits from the relevant conservation authorities were not obtained for the keeping of such an animal.
- (2) Any person giving an animal into the care of an animal keeper must ensure that the keeper meets these minimum criteria.

24. Nuisance

- (1) No person may keep any animal that creates a nuisance, whether the health nuisance or nuisance emanates from odour, sound or noise made by the animal, or from any other source relating to the animal and whether the health nuisance or nuisance emanates from the animal itself or from the manner in which, or the conditions under which, the animal is kept or from the escaping or wandering of the animal, as the case may be.
- (2) The City may consult with the relevant street committee or neighbourhood watch of the area to resolve the matter with the owner of the animal causing the nuisance.
- (3) If the City reasonably believes that an animal poses or creates a nuisance, the City may:
 - (a) in writing order the owner or person in charge of the animal to abate the nuisance within a reasonable time and setting out the measures to be taken;

- (b) where possible and, if necessary, remove the animal concerned.
- (4) If a person as contemplated in subsection (3) is found guilty of a second contravention in terms of subsection (3) in respect of the same animal, the Court may, in addition to imposing a sentence in accordance with the provisions of this by-law, order that the animal be seized and removed by the City to a place designated by the City as contemplated in this by-law.
- (5) If the City reasonably believes that any stable, enclosure or other building or structure where an animal is kept causes or is likely to cause a nuisance, be it due to its construction or state of disrepair or lack of cleanliness or for any other reason, the City may in writing order the owner or the person in charge of the premises upon which the stable, enclosure, building or structure concerned is situated, to execute and perform such work as required to abate the nuisance, as the case may be, as specified in the notice, within a reasonable time.
- (6) If the nuisance as contemplated in subsection (5) has not abated after expiry of the period concerned, or the owner or person in charge of the premises has not executed and performed the work required in the notice to the satisfaction of the City, the owner or person in charge of the premises is guilty of an offence.

25. Permits

- (1) Any person that wants to undertake an activity or for the keeping of animals listed in this By-law, and for which a permit is required, must apply to the City in writing prior to undertaking the relevant activity.
- (2) The City may charge the applicant a prescribed fee for considering and for granting a permit.
- (3) The City may refuse to consider an application for a permit until the prescribed fee has been paid and until it has been provided with the information that it reasonably requires to make an informed decision.
- (4) The City may, after consideration of a report and recommendation of an authorised official or veterinary surgeon, by written notice to the holder of a permit, amend, suspend or cancel the permit –
- (a) if it is satisfied that failure to do so would result in-
 - (i) the creation or continuation of a nuisance in a public place; or
 - (ii) a continued contravention of any provision of this by-law.
 - (b) with immediate effect, if an authorised official reasonably believes that it is urgently necessary to do so to eliminate or reduce a significant risk to public health posed by a nuisance; or
 - (c) after expiry of the period stipulated in a notice affording the holder of a permit a reasonable opportunity to comply with the notice and the holder of the permit failed to comply with the notice.
- (5) The City may amend, suspend or cancel a permit by written notice to the holder, if the authorised official reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so to protect public health or to take account of changed circumstances since the permit was issued.

26. Keeping of Dogs and Cats

- (1) A person who keeps a dog or cat that is older than six months must apply to the City for a permit in respect of every dog or cat.
- (2) The application must be accompanied by the prescribed permit fee as set out in the City's tariff of charges, as well as a valid rabies inoculation certificate held in respect of the dog or cat concerned.

27. Keeping of dangerous animals

- (1) A person who keeps a dangerous animal must –
 - (a) keep it in an adequate enclosure;
 - (b) display adequate signage indicating the presence of a dangerous animal; and
 - (c) take reasonable measures to ensure that the animal –
 - (i) does not escape from the premises where it is kept; or
 - (ii) does not pose a danger, or cause harm, to a person, other animal or property.

28. Keeping of wild animals

- (1) No person may keep any wild animals on residential premises without prior approval of the relevant nature conservation authorities and or without a permit by the relevant local authority authorizing the keeping of such animals on the premises.
- (2) No person may deliberately or negligently feed any wild animal that is not in captivity, with the exclusion of bird feeders.
- (3) No person may permit a wild animal to access domestic waste.

29. Standards and Requirements for Keeping of Animals On Premises

- (1) Premises used in connection with the keeping of animals and poultry must be operated under a permit issued in terms of this By-Law, except premises used for the keeping of animals and poultry on property zoned for agricultural farming or agricultural purposes, where the primary use of the land is for farming with animals and poultry.
- (2) No person may keep, breed or operate the following animals on any residential premises without applying to the City for a permit –

- (4) Applications to keep any varieties of rock dove or feral pigeons of the species Columba livia on any residential premises must be in writing in the prescribed format and may be considered and resolved by the City after consideration of substantiated comments received from abutting and affected neighbours and proof of Club Membership.
- (5) No person may keep any pigs on any residential premises in the City.
- (6) No person may keep any roosters on any residential premises in the City.

30. General hygiene requirements for keeping of animals and poultry

- (1) The premises and any equipment, apparatus, container or receptacle used in connection with keeping of animals, shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition and in good repair.
- (2) Portable storage receptacles of an impervious material and with close fitting lids must be provided for storage of manure and animal waste.
- (3) Potable drinking water supply must be provided and situated next to or in every stable or any enclosure used to accommodate animals, including poultry.
- (4) Manure storage receptacles shall be kept on a platform that enables the surface underneath the receptacle to be cleaned.
- (5) Manure from an enclosure must be removed at least once every three (3) days and placed in the manure storage receptacles.
- (6) The contents of the manure storage receptacles must be removed from the premises at least once every seven days and disposed of in a way that will not create a public health nuisance. The disposal of manure does not include composting on the premises.
- (7) All feed must be stored in a rodent-proof storeroom and all loose feed in rodent-proof receptacles with close fitting lids in the storeroom.
- (8) Adequate measures must be taken to keep the premises free of pests and to prevent offensive odours arising from the keeping of such animals.
- (9) All animal bedding must be removed from the stables/enclosures at least once a week and shall be stored in the manure receptacles or manure container or area until it is removed from the premises and suitably disposed of.
- (10) Adequate washing facilities shall be provided for the cleaning of all structures housing animals and poultry.
- (11) If the amount of manure generated on the premises is of large quantities, it may be required that a manure storage area be provided for storage of manure prior to removal.
- (12) The manure storage area, if needed, shall have a roofed platform constructed of concrete or other impervious material and the platform shall be graded and drained.

- (13) Any animal that dies from any premises shall be removed from the said premises within 24 hours of its death, to prevent a health nuisance or nuisance from occurring.
- (14) Where the premises are provided with an animal mortuary, carcasses must be kept in the cold storage facilities until they are removed from the premises.
- (15) Disposal of dead animals shall be conducted in an acceptable manner and in compliance to the relevant City by-laws.
- (16) Subsections (14) and (15) do not apply to similar facilities provided for in terms of the Meat Safety Act No. 40 of 2000, registered veterinarian facilities or pounds.

31. Standards and Requirements for Pet Parlours, Pet Shops, Pet Day Care Facilities and Pet Hotels

- (1) No person shall operate a pet parlour, pet shop, pet day care facility or pet hotel on any premises, unless under a valid permit issued in terms of this By-Law.
- (2) Applications to operate a pet parlour, pet shop, pet day care facility or pet hotel must be made in writing in the prescribed format and may be considered and resolved by the City after consideration of substantiated comments received from abutting and affected neighbours.
- (3) Pet parlours, pet shops, pet day care facilities and pet hotels must comply with the environmental health standards as set out in the relevant by-laws, policies and any conditions that the City may attach to their permits;

32. Keeping and slaughtering of animals for religious, cultural, ceremonial and own consumption purposes

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no person may:
 - (a) slaughter any animal at any place other than at a registered abattoir;
 - (b) permit the slaughter of any animal at any place under their control unless that place is a registered abattoir; or
 - (c) sell or provide meat for human consumption and animal consumption unless it has been slaughtered at an abattoir.
- (2) Subsection 1 does not apply to a slaughter for religious, cultural, ceremonial and own consumption purposes, in terms of the Meat Safety Act, 40 of 2000. .
- (3) No meat or animal product obtained from an animal slaughtered as contemplated in subsections 1 may be sold to any person.
- (4) In the case of religious and cultural slaughtering, an application must be made in writing, fourteen (14) days prior to the event.
- (5) The slaughtering of the animal must be conducted in a position as to not allow observation by any person on neighbouring premises or any member of the public.
- (6) The meat from the slaughtered animal may only be used for religious, cultural, ceremonial and own consumption purposes and may not be sold to any person.

- (7) The meat must be handled in a hygienic manner at all times.
- (8) Blood and other waste products from the carcass must be disposed of in a manner which will not become a public health nuisance.
- (9) The animal to be slaughtered must not be kept on the premises for a period in excess of twelve (12) hours, prior to slaughtering.
- (10) Measures must be taken to ensure that no health nuisance is created or exists on the premises as a result of the slaughtering.
- (11) The services of an authorised official or any person deemed as a meat inspector in terms of the Meat Safety Act, 2000 (Act No. 40 of 2000), may be requested for conducting a post-mortem examination of the slaughtered animal at a cost determined by the City.
- (12) Animals selected for slaughter, in terms of the Red Meat Regulations promulgated in terms of the Meat Safety Act, 2000 (Act No. 40 of 2000), must be in a healthy condition.
